Scandal Forces Hays To Step Down From Campaign Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne Hays stepped down today as chairman of the House Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee until the investigation of his role in a payroll-sex scandal is completed.

Hays said he was relinquishing control of the committee to avoid putting "an unnecessary and unwarranted burden on my fellow Democratic candidates."

The congressman said he is confident he will be vindicated.

But the Ohio Democrat said he did not want "to have my name on a check which might be used as a campaign issue against any Democratic candidate." The committee distributes campaign funds to Democratic congressional candidates around the country.

Stepping down marks the first serious blow to Hays' leadership position since a woman charged that he put her on his House Administration Committee payroll to be his mistress.

In making his announcement, Hays also said, "I have also decided to call a meeting of the Committee on House Administration to discuss with them any questions concerning my role as chairman of the House Administration Committee."

He said he will call a meeting of the campaign committee next Wednesday for the election of a temporary chairman to replace him.

"Although the charge against me has yet to be substantiated by credible evidence, I am confident that when all the facts are presented at the proper time and in the proper forum, it will be obvious that the charge against me will be shown to be false," Hays said.

He accepted no questions from reporters.

As Hays prepared his statement, the House ethics committee went into closed session to decide how to proceed with its investigation of the charge.

Chairman John J. Flynt, D-Ga., said it was necessary to close the proceedings because names in addition to those of Hays and Elizabeth Ray would be used and disclosing them could be damaging.

Flynt added: "There are some things and some words I don't want to use publicly."

But Rep. Charles F. Bennett, D-Fla., a member of the committee, said: "We're not really confronted with filthy, dirty, four-letter words. We're confronted with acts that can be described delicately."

House Majority Leader Thomas O'Neill urged Hays on Wednesday to temporarily relinquish his chairmanship of the House Administration Committee as well. O'Neill said if Hays refuses to step down voluntarily, he believes the House Democratic Caucus will strip him of the post when it meets June 16.

Meanwhile, the woman who made the charge against Hays, Elizabeth Ray, denied a Chicago Tribune report that says she told federal agents she taped recorded bedroom intimacies with 13 congressmen and two senators, and that she dated official White House photographer David Kennerly.

"I did not make any accusation like that at any time," Miss Ray told CBS News.

Unions Begin Work Stoppage On Roads

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — A work stoppage was scheduled to begin today on most highway construction projects in Western Kentucky because teamsters, carpenters and laborers have been working without a contract since April 30, labor leaders said Wednesday.

Projects which would be affected by a work stoppage include construction of the Smithland Lock & Dam project on the Ohio River; a face-lifting project for downtown Paducah which includes the placement of utility lines underground; most Interstate 24 construction; work on other roads and widening of intersections.

An impasse in negotiations between three unions and the Kentucky Highway Contractors Association is blamed for the situation.

Local Western Kentucky union officials and contractors met Wednesday morning and said there would be no strike if contractors discontinued work on the projects.

"If contractors call the men into work, then picket lines will be started and a strike will be called," Frank Korte, of the Four Rivers District Council of the carpenter's union said.

Billy Harper, president of the Associated General Contractors of Western Kentucky, who also is affiliated with a local construction firm doing work on the downtown Paducah renewal project said men involved in that project would not be called to work Thursday.

Locusts Loud But Not Dangerous, Agent Says

The 13-year locusts, which have been baffling local residents in recent days, should be out of sight and out of mind in this area in just a matter of days or weeks, according to local county agent Ted Howard.

The noise made by the male locusts may be annoying, but that's the only problem the insects will cause, Howard said. The cicada, technical name for the insects, will not eat or destroy any kind of crops, vegetables, or plants, Howard said.

"It is possible that they might eat small twigs from trees, but no real damage will be caused," the county agent said.

The cicada has the longest life cycle of any insect, with a 13-year lapse between broods. Howard said he knows of no real difference between the 17-year and 13-year locusts.

The cycle begins when the cicada

Even though the shells they leave behind may look vicious, the 13-year locusts that have been creating quite a hum in the local area will not cause any major problems according to local county agent Ted Howard.

come from the ground, where they have been for the past 13 years. They shed a membrane-like shell, which residents may have to sweep up periodically during the appearances of the insects.

They then fly to the trees, where the males begin the loud humming noise. The noise is a sign of the locusts breeding, which can only be done in trees, according to Howard. The eggs are then laid on small twigs, and fall to the ground as larvae.

When the new eggs hatch, the cicada then burrow into the ground to remain for another 13 years, while the current adults will die in about two weeks.

"The pesticide Sevin will kill them," Howard said, "but there's really no need to bother. I've found no place they're eating any foliage or making destruction. But if anybody has a problem, I'll be glad to work with them."

Other reports have said that the 13-

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1976

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

A relatively easy day — once you get the gist of trends and go ahead at a steady pace. Personal relationships highly congenial.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21)

In both job and financial matters, use only time-tested procedures. Don't attempt anything risky now. And DON'T try for the unreasonable.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)

Fine Mercury influences. Be on the lookout for good leads, projects with substantial background. Written matters especially favored.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)

Don't listen to what others say when you have reason to believe that the source is questionable. Stress your good judgment and objectivity.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23)

Don't mix pleasure with business and don't try to force issues. For the present, it will be better to let things take their course.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

An excellent day for making new contacts, putting unique ideas into action. Influences also favorable for romance and travel.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

You have instinctive know-how in many areas, but may tend to get off the track now, go off unwisely on tangents. Be alert — and avoid.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)

Brace yourself for some opposition. Prepared, you can cope with it more easily, even outwit it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Financial matters now have an element of risk, so make your moves slowly and deliberately. Personal relationships, however, promise to be exceptionally congenial.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

You may have to revise some views, revamp a pre-planned program if you are to attain the goals you desire. But do this efficiently and good results are certain.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Watch and wait before you engage in new undertakings, but do not hesitate where real advantages are obvious.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Personal relations accented now. In fact, a comparatively new acquaintance could be responsible for a complete — and better — change.

YOU BORN TODAY are an extremely intelligent individual, highly imaginative and original in your ideas and methods. Your curiosity is boundless, thus you are unceasing in your quest for knowledge. This curiosity, incidentally, makes you a "natural" for the fields of journalism, science and exploration. However, your unusual versatility and readiness of comprehension fit you for many other vocations, and you could succeed admirably as an editor, musician, research worker, actor or novelist. You love travel but, unlike most born under Gemini, you have great stability, not scattering energies but content, when necessary, to "stay put" and concentrate on immediate objectives. Thus, you often succeed more quickly in reaching your goals. Birthdate of: King George III, of England; Rosalind Russell, stage and film star.

Transferees Seek Value

Chicago (NFS) — A survey shows that 79 per cent of employees transferred from one city to another rank housing costs and school as their Number One concern.

Next comes types of housing available, 55 per cent; state and local taxes, 42 per cent; police and fire protection, 35 per cent; and health care centers, 21 per cent.

Employee Transfer Corporation (ETC), Chicago, a subsidiary of Chicago Title and Trust Company, says that more corporations should be giving transferred employees this information about new communities.

ETC IS RETAINED by corporations to buy the homes of transferred employees and help them find new ones. This includes counseling the family on the new city and seeing that they are shown homes that meet their needs.

"Too many corporations expect the employee to fend for himself," stated Theodore D. Bell, executive vice president of ETC. "Often the employee has to ask his fellow workers what they recommend. This often turns out to be the wrong approach, because each family has different needs."

The risk to the family of being unhappy in the new home is great enough. But it's also a risk to the employer who may discover that an unhappy employee is not performing well on the job, Bell said.

CORPORATIONS WOULD do better by retaining a house-buying service that will work closely with the transferred family.

"Many wives of transferees say they want someone who knows the new town to meet them at the airport, give them maps, show them the types of homes best suited to the family, and answer their questions," Bell said. "This is what ETC arranges, and it can be done only by learning about the family."

Coffee Cup Chatter

By University of Kentucky County Extension Agents For Home Economics

A current trend is to furnish outdoor living areas in carpet that is tough, weather-proof, fade resistant, colorful, patterned and textured. Outdoor carpet must withstand heat, sunlight, moisture, abrasion, insects, soil and mildew. A good choice is carpeting made from 100 per cent synthetic fiber, such as solution-dyed polypropylene olefin, acrylic and nylon. Non-weather resistant foam or sponge backing which will deteriorate from heat and moisture and are fragile when used on rough surfaces are not acceptable for outdoor use. Outdoor carpet should not have a foam type backing since it would eliminate the possibility of drainage. — Mildred W. Potts, LaCenter.

When frying with butter or margarine, put several drops of cooking oil in the pan first. Then, the butter won't burn as easily. — Judy Hetterman, Hickman.

In cutting a garment, do not use pinking shears. They tend to "chew" knit fabrics, especially the interlock type, rather than give a clean, neat cutting line. Best use of pinking shears can be made by pinking seams to give a neat finish after the garment is completed. — Mrs. Dean Roper, Mayfield.

RECYCLING SHEETS — When your sheets have worn out in the middle, you can test side for strength and then use unworn side material to make pillowcases for those summer camping trips. — Mrs. Maxine Griffin, Clinton.

RECIPE CARD SAVER — Rub a cake of household paraffin over your favorite recipe cards. Then the spills wipe off easily without a trace. — Mrs. Sue Fraser, Bardwell.

Frozen Foods — Frozen convenience food items seem to be making a comeback as the economy crunch eases. A wary shopper watches stores for closeout sales, often unadvertised; she also checks stores which sell them at reduced prices as their expiration dates near.

They'll Fight Daughter For Child's Custody

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 19, pregnant and unmarried. It's too late for her to have a safe abortion, so she has decided to put up the baby for adoption. She says she doesn't want to know who adopts it, and she doesn't want them to know who or where she is—ever.

Abby, my husband and I want this child. We would adopt it and give it a good home. It is our flesh and blood, and we feel that we have the right to raise this child. This will be our first grandchild, and perhaps our only one, as our daughter is an only child. She says she wants to put that entire episode out of her life and if we adopt it, that won't be possible.

Abby, don't grandparents have some rights? We don't want to fight her in court, but we will if we have to. Please tell us what your feelings are in this matter. BROKENHEARTED

DEAR BROKENHEARTED: A lawyer must tell you what your legal rights are. I sympathize with you, but your daughter's feelings take precedence over yours. If I were you, I wouldn't fight it.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the proud parents of a newly adopted baby. A friend (?) asked, "Is the baby illegitimate?" My husband spoke up and said, "Of course not. We've been married for years." Thought maybe you'd like to share this with your readers.

NEW MAMA

DEAR MAMA: Beautiful! Consider it shared.

DEAR ABBY: May I enter an opinion on your recent columns on "Euthanasia and Living Wills"? You called upon three distinguished representatives of our major faiths to give their "official" views on these important topics.

The "majority" position of Traditional Judaism on these subjects is reflected by the chief rabbi of the British Commonwealth, Dr. Immanuel Jakobovits, in his revised book: "Jewish Medical Ethics."

On "Euthanasia": "...some authorities sanction the removal from a dying patient of medications or machines which only serve to prolong his agony, so long as no NATURAL means of subsistence (such as food, blood and oxygen) are withdrawn...however, some add that once artificial aids are utilized they also should not be removed..."

On Kidney Transplants: "The generally prevailing view is to permit such donations as acts of supreme charity, but not as an obligation..."

On "Eye-banks": "...the donor should stipulate in his bequest that his eyes be used only for patients suffering from, or threatened by, complete blindness. There must be prior consent of the donor or his family, and the disused part of the eye after the cornea has been removed should not be disposed of except by burial..."

With blessings on your work,

Eli Alexander— You're Appreciated

The elevation of Eli Alexander from principal of Murray High School to assistant superintendent of the Murray Independent School System should definitely not go unlauded.

Mr. Alexander, a native of Murray, has served as principal of Murray High for 14 years and has been instrumental in upgrading of the facility throughout that time. Since 1962 Murray High has grown from a standard to a comprehensive rating and the high school itself moved into its new modern quarters in 1971.

Alexander has been very active in educational circles throughout the area. He has served as president of the First District Principals Association and the West Kentucky Association of School Administrators as well as holding membership in the Murray Education Association, the Kentucky Education Association, the National Education Association and the Kentucky Association of Secondary School Principals, serving on the board of directors of the latter organization.

In addition to his work in education, Alexander has also been extremely active in civic affairs in our community. A former member of the Murray Lions club, he is also a member of the Calloway County chapter on Drug Abuse and a member of the First Methodist Church, where he served for eight years as secretary-treasurer and is now a member of the administrative board.

In addition to his 14 years as principal, he has also served 7 years as a teacher and coach — a total of 21 years with the local school system.

We wish Mr. Alexander the best of luck in his new position and are thankful that he plans to remain associated with the local school system and our community. His contributions in the past and those forthcoming in the future should be appreciated by all.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Thursday, June 3, the 155th day of 1976. There are 211 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1940, the Allied evacuation from France in World War Two was completed. Some 337,000 British, French and Belgian troops had been transported to England.

On this date:
In 1821, the Dutch West India Company received a charter for New Netherlands — now New York.

In 1808, Confederate President Jefferson Davis was born in what is now Todd County, Kentucky.

In 1937, the Duke of Windsor married Wallis Warfield Simpson of Baltimore in France.

In 1942, in World War Two, Japanese warplanes raided Dutch Harbor, Alaska.

In 1962, 30 members of an Atlanta art group were killed in an airliner crash at Paris, France.

In 1970, President Richard Nixon made a nationwide broadcast in which he described a U.S. and Vietnamese drive into Cambodia as a great success.

Ten years ago: A major political figure in Communist China, Mayor Peng Chen of Peking, was removed from office.

Five years ago: James Hoffa announced from prison that he would not seek re-election as president of the Teamsters Union.

One year ago: President Ford met with Pope Paul at the Vatican.

Today's birthdays: Actor Tony Curtis is 51 years old. Actor Maurice Evans is 75.

Thought for today: Injustice is relatively easy to bear; what stings is justice — H.L. Mencken, American journalist, 1880-1956.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia resolved to reinforce Colonial troops in New York with nearly 14,000 militiamen to counter the British threat to the Middle Colonies.

Garrott's Galley All the Way from Indonesia Comes a Wrather Hall Check

By M. C. Garrott

All the way from Indonesia the other day came a check from Bill and Betty McElrath to be applied toward the Wrather Hall Museum fund.

"We would like to be a part of this campaign," Bill, a Baptist missionary, wrote. "My father and grandfather were among the donors to the original $100,000 contributed to build that structure in the first place. As you know, that cashier's check for $100,000 was probably what carried the day and kept the college from going to Mayfield or Paducah. Aside from the educational angle, it was probably the smartest financial move ever made by Murray and Calloway County folks. Murray State University has become a real growth industry!"

How right Bill is, and his check was promptly acknowledged and has been turned over to Max Brandon at People's Bank who is the campaign treasurer.

Bill and his family are one year into their second tour of service in Indonesia. They live at Bandung, where he works in a publishing house, writing and translating Baptist literature into the Indonesian language.

A prolific writer, Bill has produced a number of books, many for children, which are in public and church libraries all over the country. He is sending me a review copy of his latest, which he calls "my Baptist Bicentennial special: 'To Be the First: Adventures of Adoniram Judson, America's First Foreign Missionary.'" It was scheduled for release on May 15, and is published by Broadman Press.

He also has another book, "Winding Road," scheduled for release by Broadman on June 1. Meanwhile he is working "on a possible comic-book version of the Judson story, to be published later."

It was good to hear from Bill, and having an idea what Baptist foreign missionaries receive in the way of a salary. I can appreciate the sacrifice he and his family have made in order to be a part of the Wrather Hall Museum campaign. I'm sure his father and his grandfather would have been proud.

While speaking to the Murray Rotary Club a couple of weeks ago, Hugh B. Vanderbilt, president of the R. T. Vanderbilt Company, Inc., of Norwalk, Conn., which is the parent company of the "Vanderbilt Chemical Company" here, pointed out that "Almighty God has been kind to the company and its subsidiaries from mineral deposit locations to good fortune in manufacturing sites."

"For instance," he said, "our Standard Mineral Company subsidiary is only 20 miles from Pinehurst, N. C., and we have a lot of avid golfers to enjoy this beautiful country and climate." Pinehurst, at last count, had something like 18 fabulous 18-hole golf courses. It's where most golfers want to go when they die.

"Our Dixie Clay Company," he went on, "is only three miles from Augusta, Ga., with its Augusta National Golf Club and the Masters Tournament. Our Gouverneur Tal Co. in Gouverneur, N. Y., is only 23 miles from the Thousand Islands between Canada and the U. S., and our Western Tal Co. and Silicates Corp. spread over Nevada, Eastern California and Northern Arizona are within easy access of Las Vegas where we stay on visits.

"We are not gamblers, but anyone who knows the Great Basin would appreciate the necessity of the good food and accommodations only found in Las Vegas or Reno," he added with a smile.

Apparently it was only natural for a company with farseeing master planners such as it has to locate in Murray and next door to the great Land Between the Lakes country. He touched on this in his remarks, too, saying:

"These are all mineral deposits laid down by God in these mostly pleasant surroundings not decided on by us. Murray was decided by us after much searching over the nation and a good deal of experience gained by us in our widespread operations over the 60 years of our existence.

"Evidently God here again was kind to give us the wisdom and foresight to settle here. We have been nothing but happy and we have in Murray a lot of what's paramount to any enterprise and that's good people.

"Good people mean a good community and here in Murray our aim is to be a good corporate citizen with our people active and helpful in civic affairs. We have room to grow with you and our operations here serve the biggest part of our business (the rubber industry) and the fastest growing part of it (the petroleum additives)."

That ought to make us feel good about living in Murray, and it is particularly gratifying to hear a man of Mr. Vanderbilt's position publicly give God the credit.

Average Home Costs $100,000

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The average new single-family home now costs about $100,000.

Shocking as that price might be, it is a fact if you include the cost of financing which over the past 10 years has added much more to the price of housing than have building costs.

In 1966 a new single-family house cost about $25,000. If a $5,000 down payment were made it would leave $20,000 to be financed at 6 per cent for 25 years. Total cost: $43,661.

A comparable house in 1976 costs $45,000. After a $9,000, 20 per cent, down payment, $36,000 would remain to be financed at 9 per cent for 25 years. Total cost: $99,636.

In terms of monthly payments, the 1966 purchaser must come up with $128.87 — generally rounded off to $129 — while the 1976 buyer has to pay a note of $302.12.

Stated starkly, the typical purchaser cannot afford the typical house, and no agency of government or private enterprise seems able to resolve the dilemma.

Builders have literally cut corners, reducing the size of models. They have cut out the extra bath and the fourth bedroom, have left attics unfinished, eliminated the garage, reduced the quality of cabinetry.

Individuals have resorted to their own devices. On a small scale, some companies offer kits to individuals capable of erecting their own homes. Many young couples have bought and refinished older, run down homes.

The over-all problem remains, however. A survey by "Professional Builder Magazine" indicates that at least 40 per cent of potential buyers in the age group to 34 years cannot afford to pay more than $35,000.

Moreover, the trend continues to worsen. Often ignored in time and price comparisons is that worker income, while increasing, is not rising as fast as housing prices.

In a commentary on the housing market this week, Rinfret-Boston Associates notes that early in 1976 it

Humanely Speaking

Written By The Humane Society Of Calloway County

"But I Find Homes For Them"

Thought you'd never make it? So mama cat presented you with half a dozen kittens again, and you had a hard time getting rid of them? Maybe you put them in a bag and left them in the middle of the Lynn Grove Highway as one individual did recently; maybe you put them in a bag and drowned them; or maybe you clubbed them to death, wincing at their cries as you did so. Maybe you took the time and trouble to find homes for them — anyone who would take them — hoping that they would be well taken care of. Unfortunately, the oft used phrase, "got rid of" is all too accurate. Kittens and pups are a nuisance, something to be gotten out of the way as quickly as possible.

When you encounter the results of the pet population explosion day after day, as members of the Humane Society do; when you see the gaunt and diseased victims struggling desperately just to stay alive, you realize that even those pet owners who make an effort to "find good homes" for pups and kittens must share the guilt for this deplorable state of affairs.

Every year, almost 40,000,000 pups and kittens are born in this country. But it is estimated that there are homes for only about 8,000,000 of them! Thus, four out of five of them are doomed at birth to become the strays we see in alleys and on streets and highways, searching furtively for food and shelter and dying agonizing deaths from disease, hunger, and abuse. The lucky ones find their way to animal shelters where most of them are put to death in one way or another. Clearly, although you may "find good homes" for your pets, by permitting your pet to breed without control you ultimately deprive other animals of homes. There are only so many homes to go around.

In another three months or so, your cat or dog will present you with still another litter to "get rid of." How much more humane it would be to see that the little ones are never born in the first place! As a pet owner, the responsibility rests squarely with you. Please see your vet about having your dog or cat spayed. Please see him now — September will be too late.

Remember, an outside temperature of only 85 degrees can kill a dog left in a car with the windows left open a crack. Please leave your dog at home during the summer months!

If you have comments or questions concerning these columns or the work of the Society, or if you would like to join the Society or contribute to its programs, please write PO Box 2934, University Station, Murray, Kentucky.

Isn't It The Truth

Our Congress, fumbling around after losing the ball of rationality in a hundred parliamentary scrimmages, is afflicted with one of the worst of all mental ailments — not having enough sense to know that it does not have any sense.

Many Kentuckians have received certificates through the mail informing them that they have won a "free" sewing machine. Others have received "Checks" for a portion of the purchase price. The prize is described, including its value at a retail store. Frequently, the winner is requested to come into the store to see the merchandise and either to accept or reject the offer. The trick to this scheme is that the prize can end up costing YOU money.

Blasingame

Athlete's Foot

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

Athlete's foot (tinea pedis) is a common disease which affects most persons to a disabling degree at some time in their lives especially adults. One estimate places the incidence of the infection at 40 per cent of the population at a given time.

In a sense, athlete's foot is a disease of civilization and is related to wearing shoes. One way to prevent the condition would be to discard our footwear and walk around barefoot — an unlikely happening.

Leaving off footwear would expose our feet to other hazards of cuts, bruises and wear-and-tear. In addition, our modern shoes serve as a decorative part of our attire.

Athlete's foot is caused by a fungus infection attacking the skin. The fungus is almost everywhere, and avoiding it is almost impossible.

Wetness of the feet allows the fungus to penetrate the harder, outer layers of the skin by softening them. Moisture and warmth encourage the rate of growth of the fungus, especially in between the toes. Friction of the toes rubbing against each other traumatizes the skin and makes it more vulnerable to the fungus. Various powders and ointments are available at pharmacies to treat an active case.

Once the skin is broken, bacteria also enter the deeper layers and may cause pain and swelling, often producing a red streak up the foot and leg. Such acute inflammation usually requires bed rest for several days, elevation and moist packs, and sulfa drugs or other systemic medication.

Reporting recently in the American Medical Association's Archives of Dermatology, A.M. Kligman, M.D., and associates at the University of Pennsylvania pointed out that the wetness and bacteria could be reduced by applying a 30 per cent solution of aluminum chloride twice a day to the skin areas usually troubled by athlete's foot.

A few days are necessary before the medication becomes effective. It is usually well tolerated and has to be applied regularly over a period of time. This preparation is available from your physician or druggist.

Q: Miss K.C. has been troubled with episodes of dizziness and ear noises. Her general examination was normal as were her eyes. Ear trouble has been suggested as the cause. She asks for comment.

A: Your history and symptoms point to an inner ear disturbance, perhaps what is often described as Meniere's syndrome. I suggest that you see a physician who specializes in diseases of the ear (otologist). He can likely make a diagnosis and prescribe medication which will bring you symptomatic relief.

Q: Mr. R.W. asks whether "shingles" is contagious and desires advice regarding treatment.

A: Shingles (herpes zoster) is a virus infection affecting the sensory part of nerves and is mildly contagious. Physicians often notice a number of cases occurring at the same time in a community. The acute phase lasts about two to three weeks and requires rest and medication for pain.

If episodes of pain persist, dilantin sodium is often beneficial to prevent these flare-ups of pain. In older persons, a careful examination should be done after cases of shingles because they may be a sign of lowered resistance and other systemic disease such as anemia or cancer.

Consumer Comment

Absolutely Free?

Robert F. Stephens
Attorney General

"This is your lucky day, you have won absolutely free...."

Many Kentuckians have received certificates through the mail informing them that they have won a "free" sewing machine. Others have received "Checks" for a portion of the purchase price. The prize is described, including its value at a retail store. Frequently, the winner is requested to come into the store to see the merchandise and either to accept or reject the offer. The trick to this scheme is that the prize can end up costing YOU money.

Those who read further and examine the very fine print discover that the consumer who won a "free" sewing machine must pay 10 dollars a month for three years on a service contract. This means that the "free" sewing machine will cost the consumer over $300. This amount may be higher than the retail cost of the machine.

To be a contest, there must be losers as well as winners. Did other people in your area receive this offer? Why must the coupon be redeemed so quickly? How long has the company been in business? What service agreement or warranty is included? Who does repair work for the company?

You can protect yourself against fraudulent business practices by remembering to be skeptical. If an offer sounds "too good to be true" it is usually neither good nor true.

If you have a consumer complaint, write to the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection, Room 34, The Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601. The office has found that it can most effectively deal with written complaints and encourages you to write when you have a complaint. However, if you have an emergency situation, call the consumer hotline. The number is 1-800-372-2960.

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Acts 2:39.

How wonderful that Peter's sermon on the day of Pentecost included us! Even though we were "afar off," God was able to reach us in His love.

Bold Forbes Made Favorite In Final Triple Crown Leg

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bold Forbes, fast and lucky, is set to close out the tough Triple Crown series as the favorite to win the Belmont Stakes Saturday.

"In this kind of racing you have to have luck to keep your horses sound," said trainer Laz Barrera who saddled Bold Forbes for the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

The only other Belmont probable who is a veteran of the first two Triple Crown races was Play The Red, a disappointing eighth in the Derby but a solid second in the Preakness.

Others expected to be entered today for the 1 1/2-mile classic at Belmont Park were Howard P. Wilson's Great Contractor, Ogden Mills Phipps' Majestic Light, Mrs. Douglas Carver's McKenzie Bridge and Christiana Stable's Best Laid Plans.

Among the missing will be Honest Pleasure, the beaten favorite in the 1 1/4-mile Derby and the 13-16-mile Preakness, and Elocutionist, third in the Derby and the winner of the Preakness. Honest Pleasure is being rested while Elocutionist, who was pointed for the Belmont, suffered a wrenched ankle.

Johnny Campo, who trains Play The Red for Max Gluck, felt that Elocutionist, not Bold Forbes, would have been the horse to beat and that the Preakness winner's injury boosts his colt's chances of making the $150,000-added Belmont the first stakes win of a 15-race career.

Bold Forbes, a small colt at 55.2 hands, has survived the rigors of the Triple Crown well, said Barrera, who admitted he is worn out by the experience.

"I've been mentally very tired," the Cuban-born trainer said Wednesday. "It's good to have this kind of pressure because it means you have a good horse. But it's bad for your health."

At least Bold Forbes, owned by E.R. Tizol, is headed for a rest after the Belmont.

"I think I'll give him probably about 45 days, then bring him back in Saratoga for the Travers," said Barrera.

A victory by Bold Forbes would make him the third colt in 13 years to sandwich Derby and Belmont wins around a defeat in the Preakness. In 1963, Chateaugay won the Derby, finished second in the Preakness and won the Belmont. In 1972, Riva Ridge turned in a frontrunning victory in the Derby—as did Bold Forbes—finished fourth in the Preakness and then won the Belmont wire-to-wire.

The field for the 108th Belmont, scale weighted at 126 pounds, will go to the post at 5:38 p.m. EDT. Television coverage by CBS will be from 5-6 p.m.

Bell And Stones Might Steal NCAA Track Show

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
AP Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two world record holders, pole vaulter Earl Bell and high jumper Dwight Stones, could steal the show from defending champion Texas-El Paso and individual defenders in the three-day NCAA Track and Field championships opening today.

Bell, of Arkansas State, is fresh from vaulting 18 feet, 7 1/4 inches a week ago to unofficially erase the 18-6 1/2 record held by Dave Roberts of the Florida Track Club. Bell, the defending NCAA pole vault champ, set his record on a first-try jump.

The qualifying is set for today at Penn's Franklin Field.

The cocky Stones, of Long Beach, according to Track and Field News—the only unanimous choice for an Olympic gold medal at this summer's Olympics, holds the world mark of 7-6 1/2. He's an Olympic bronze medalist who has set eight world records. He's been over 7-5 in 18 different meets.

Just to get a shot at Stones in the NCAA's, a competitor has to have cleared seven feet, and there are 99 coaches who believe their jumpers can do it. A qualifying jump today is expected, however, to cut the field to about 12 for Saturday's finals.

In addition to Bell, defending champions are John Negro of Washington State in the 5,000 and 10,000 meters; James Munyala, UTEP, in the 3,000; Eamonn Coghlan of Villanova in the 1,500; Reggie Jones, Tennessee, in the 200; Louisiana State's Larry Shipp, 110-meter hurdles, and Jim McGoldrick of Texas in the discus. Southern California defends the 400 meter relay title.

UTEP figures to be challenged for the team title by Southern California, Tennessee, Kansas, UCLA and Arizona State. Tennessee won two years ago, and UCLA has finished first three times and second twice in the past five years.

Defensive Effort By Sobers Drops Celtics

By BERT ROSENTHAL
AP Sports Writer

PHOENIX (AP) — Ricky Sobers, Phoenix' "other" rookie, played like number one in Game Four of the National Basketball Association championship series.

And because of his performance, the underdog Suns, the longest shot in the 10-team field that began the NBA playoffs this season, beat the Boston Celtics 109-107 Wednesday night and tied the best-of-seven series 2-2.

Surprisingly, Sobers credited Boston's John Havlicek with helping him perform well ... not because of anything the Celtics' captain did in the game, but because of something he remembered the 36-year-old star saying on television.

The incident occurred during a telecast of a Boston game that Sobers was watching while he was at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

"I remember Havlicek saying that defense is the key to the game of basketball," said the 23-year-old Sobers, a defensive specialist. "He said the best way to get into the NBA was to know how to play defense, and ever since then I've been stressing defense."

Sobers took charge in the third period of Game Four. With Boston leading 71-70 midway through the quarter, the Suns reeled off 12 consecutive points, eight of them by the embattled rookie. Sobers also fed Keith Erickson for another basket during this spree.

The streak put the Suns ahead 82-71—and they never trailed after that.

However, they did experience some scares. Eight times in the last period, Boston drew within two points—but each time, the inexperienced Suns, the team expected to crack under the intense pressure of a championship series, repulsed the threats.

"Pressure is a thing you put only upon yourself and you have to be oblivious to it," said the fiery Sobers, who has been involved in one fight in each of Phoenix' three playoff series this year. "I love pressure."

Sobers finished with 14 points, while Paul Westphal led the Suns with 28, Alvan Adams—the NBA's Rookie of the Year—scored 20 and Garfield Heard had 19 points and 15 rebounds. Jo Jo White paced the Celtics with 25 points, Dave Cowens had 22 points and 12 rebounds and Paul Silas collected 18 points and four rebounds.

Game Five will be Friday night in Boston and the sixth game will be in Phoenix Sunday. A seventh game, if necessary, will be at Boston next Wednesday.

FIELD DAY—Carter Elementary School held its field day Wednesday. Here, Tina Shelton holds the legs of Lanette Hopkins in the wheelbarrow race.

State Baseball Tourney Will Feature Outstanding Pitching

MOREHEAD, Ky. (AP) — The 36th annual Kentucky High School Baseball Tournament was to have gotten underway today at Morehead State University with Owensboro meeting Laurel County and Elizabethtown going against Newport Catholic in semifinal action.

Players, coaches and fans were hoping rain would not postpone the tournament.

Owensboro, 29-14, was scheduled to meet Laurel County, 27-3, at 2 p.m. EDT. The contest between Newport Catholic, 25-12, and Elizabethtown, 37-3, was set for 4 p.m.

The four finalists are the survivors of four sectional tournaments last week.

Elizabethtown is the defending state champion.

Laurel County will be making its debut in the tournament against Owensboro, having won 19 straight season games.

The game between Elizabethtown and Newport Catholic will match unbeaten pitchers.

Elizabethtown's Tim Brandenburg brings a 14-0 record with him, while Ken Wilfong of Newport Catholic will be riding a 10-0 record.

Elizabethtown Coach Ron Myers said Wednesday his team has been getting ready for Wilfong's curve ball.

"We have a curve ball pitching machine and we've been preparing for it. Whether we hit or not will depend on our attitude," he said.

A right-handed senior, Wilfong has struck out 118 batters, walked 25 given up 21 earned runs and registered a 1.89 ERA in 78 innings.

"I don't think Ken will give up many runs," said Newport Catholic Coach Bob Schneider.

"But the secret to beating Elizabethtown is to score on Brandenburg," Schneider said. "He has a phenomenal record."

The left-handed senior is unbeaten in 19 victories during the past two seasons, striking out 147 of 249 batters this season, allowing 21 hits, 24 walks and only three earned runs.

Larry Jaster Hired

ATLANTA (AP) — Former major league pitcher Larry Jaster has been hired as a pitching coach for the Atlanta Braves' farm club at Savannah.

Jaster pitched six seasons in the major leagues with St. Louis, Montreal and Atlanta. His hiring was announced Wednesday.

Mary Bain Of Sikeston Wins Her Third Hart Golf Tourney

The third time was charm for Mrs. Mary Bain of Sikeston, Mo., Wednesday as the six-time Southeast Missouri ladies' champion stroked her way to the championship in the 9th renewal of the George Hart Invitational Tournament at the Murray Country Club.

Mrs. Bain, who also is the ladies' champion at the Sikeston Country Club, had made a run at the championship flight laurels each of the past two years only to falter on the long, demanding back nine.

Not true, however, Wednesday. Playing beneath leaden skies for most of her round and finishing in a steady downpour, she would have made a rout of it but for a triple bogey on the 17th hole leaving her with a 78, only three strokes over ladies' par and three strokes in front of the second place winner, Mary Jo Riddle of Madisonville.

Playing in her first ladies' medal play tournament of the year, Mrs. Bain served notice early that she came to play, regardless of the sodden fairways and the threatening skies. On the 402-yard first hole, she rammed home a 12-foot putt for a birdie four. Par is 75 and the distance 5,687 yards on the Murray course for the ladies.

She then parred the second, third and fourth holes before sinking a 20-foot, wide-breaking putt on the 405-yard 5th hole to go two under. She then bogeyed the 320-yard 8th, but came back with a birdie four on the 400-yard 9th to make the turn two under par at 36.

After paring the first two holes on the back side, she ran into tree trouble on the 260-yard 12th and missed the green on the 305-yard 13th to post successive bogeys and fell back to even par.

She then parred the next three—three of the longest holes on the course—before disaster almost struck again on the 155-yard 17th. With the rain pouring down, she pushed her tee shot into the trees at the right, leaving her with only a punch shot out.

This too ended up next to a tree and a second chip out to the fairway left her still short of the green in three. Pitching on, she almost sank her putt, the ball going into the cup but coming out, leaving her with a triple bogey six. She then parred the difficult, 360-yard 18th for a 42 on the back side and her sparkling 78 in the rain.

Nancy Howell, Clarksville, was the third place finisher with an 84. Low net in the flight went to Jean Brien, Calvert City, with 72, followed by Virginia Davis, Paducah, and Florence Lewis, Jackson, Mo., with 75's.

In the first flight, Virginia Everett, Princeton, was the winner with 86. Tena King, Clarksville, was second with 87, and Millie Brown, Paducah, was third with 89. Mary Bogard, Murray Oaks, was the low net winner with 71, followed by Wanda Mullinax, Paducah, with 75 and Mary McQuary, Jackson, Mo., with 77.

Dot Arnold, Paducah, was the second flight winner with 93, two strokes in front of Doris Thomas, Madisonville, with 95. Hilda Jackson, Benton, was third with 97. Low net in the flight went to Pauline Green, Paducah, with 73, followed by Neil Roach, Murray, and Toby Williams, Madisonville, with 75's.

Winner of the third flight was Della Boggess, Murray Oaks, with 94, followed by Vicki Nance, also of the Oaks with 95, and Gail Ledbetter, Clarksville, with 98. Angie Manning, Clarksville, was the low net winner with 72. Sarah London, Hopkinsville, and Jessie Hutchens, Benton, were next with 75's.

In the fourth and final flight, Sandy Coleman, Murray Oaks, was the winner with 100. Judy McDaniel, Duenden, Fla., was second with 106, and Evelyn Kesterson, Mayfield, was third with 110. Low net went to Jean Wilson, Murray, with 71, followed by Dianne Villanova, Murray, with 74, and Polly Seale, Murray Oaks, with 77.

A team of Murray Country Club ladies—Beverly Parker, Betty Lowry, Carol Hibbard and Phyllis Kain—won the Dorothy Holland team trophy by a single stroke, 357 to 358, over the Paducah Rolling Hills Country Club team of Wanda Mullinax, Virginia Davis, Millie Brown and Dot Arnold.

The 18-hole medal play tournament was pre-flighted with handicaps from 4 through 14 in the championship flight, 15 through 20 in the first flight, 21 through 25 in the second flight, 26 through 29 in the third flight and 30 through 40 in the fourth flight.

Ninety-five players turned out for the tournament, which is one of the highlights of the ladies' golf season in West Kentucky.

ANOTHER WIN—Mary Bain seems to make a habit of winning in area golf tourneys. Several times she has won the Oaks Ladies Invitational and Wednesday she captured her third George Hart Tournament crown.

Strange Bumped Out Of British Tourney Again

By GEOFFREY MILLER
AP Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Curtis Strange, bumped out of the British Amateur Golf Championship for the second straight year, may have played in the old tournament for the last time.

"By this time next year I may be a professional," said the 21-year-old stroke-maker from Virginia Beach, Va.

"If I am still an amateur I shall be back, but I am going to turn professional some time and my plans are very open at the moment."

Strange decided to be a pro after finishing 14th in this year's Masters at Augusta, Ga. He was favored to win the British Amateur title on the old course at St. Andrews, but like last year, he was beaten in the second round — this time by Tommy Cochran, a 23-year-old Scottish printer who took a week's holiday to play in the big tournament.

How does a man who outscored some of the world's top pros at Augusta fail so regularly in the British Amateur, where many of the competitors just play golf for fun on the weekend?

"Well, that's match play," Strange said. "There are days when you do not play well. One bad round, and you are out."

"On this occasion, my opponent putted very well, and I did not make any putts at all."

Cochran won 3 and 2 after pulverizing Strange by rolling in two fantastic putts from 30 yards.

The formula of match play and head-to-head knockout wrecked the organizing committee's plans for the quarterfinals. After two rounds, only three of the eight seeded players were left in contention.

These included two Americans — Vinny Giles, the defending champion from Richmond, Va., and Dick Siderowf, the 1973 champion from Westport, Conn.

Giles had a tough time Wednesday against Michael Miller, another of Scotland's multitude of talented amateur golfers.

Earl Williams Loses Two Homers To Rain

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer

The Atlanta Braves have the worst record in the majors and they may also have the worst luck.

Ask slugger Earl Williams. Williams clubbed home runs in the second and third innings Wednesday night as the Braves built a 5-0 lead against San Diego, and then watched it all go down the drain — the victim of an untimely Atlanta thunderstorm.

"How do you rationalize it?" asked a disgusted Williams after umpires called off the game in the fourth inning, just four outs short of being an official contest.

"It's a pain in the back. It's what you root for when you are losing by a lot and what you root against when you are ahead."

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia dumped St. Louis 4-1, Pittsburgh beat Montreal 4-2, Los Angeles bombed San Francisco 11-3, Cincinnati shaded Houston 8-7

Injury

ATLANTA (AP) — Biff Pocoroba of the Atlanta Braves will be out of action for three weeks with a fractured right knee suffered this week while catching Dick Ruthven in the bullpen, the National League club announced Wednesday.

Pocoroba, who had been handling most of the catching chores for Atlanta, was hitting .230 with seven runs batted in.

and Chicago beat New York 5-3.

Atlanta was the only city that got rained on Wednesday night and the Braves were the team that could least afford it. They are 17-30 so far, 12 games out of first place in the NL West.

Williams, off to a slow start, had shown signs of rounding into form and had his average up to .242. Then came the fireworks ... then came the rain.

Phillies 4, Cardinals 1
Lefty Tom Underwood tossed a five-hitter and contributed a two-run single as Philadelphia won its 13th straight road game and 19th in 23 games over-all. Dick Allen doubled home one run and Bob Boone singled in another. John Curtis, 3-5, lost it and Hector Cruz homered for the Cards.

Pirates 4, Expos 2
Sacrifice flies by Richie Zisk in the eighth and Bob Robertson in the ninth helped Bruce Kison even his record at 4-4 with relief help from Dave Giusti. Woody Fryman, 6-3, lost it for Montreal which has dopped six straight. Manny Sanguillen had a single, double and triple for the winners.

Dodgers 11, Giants 3
Rick Rhoden picked up his fourth victory without a loss and drove in four runs with two singles and a squeeze bunt for Los Angeles. Rhoden spaced 10 hits, including home runs by Dave Rader and Bobby Murcer. The Dodgers pounded out 18 base hits off John Montefusco, 6-4, and four relievers, including three each by Ron Cey and Dusty Baker.

Reds 8, Astros 7
Cincinnati got a pair of runs in the seventh — Dan Driessen's RBI single and Joe Morgan's sacrifice fly — to go ahead for good in the see-saw contest. Will McEnany won it and Ken Forsch lost it, both in relief. Tony Perez knocked in three runs with a pair of singles for the Reds.

Cubs 5, Mets 3
Chicago struck for four runs off Craig Swan, 2-5, in the fifth, two of them on Manny Trillo's single. Bill Bonham, 4-2, went the distance with a nine-hitter to notch the Cubs' second complete game of the year. Rick Monday had three hits for Chicago which trails third-place New York by one game in the NL East. The Mets have dropped 10 of their last 12 games.

Anderson Says No More Microphones

HOUSTON (AP) — Cincinnati Reds Manager Sparky Anderson will no longer allow networks to wire him for sound during televised baseball games.

Anderson said he is inclined not to watch his language and his coaches avoid him during the games fearing their words will be picked up.

Anderson said he uttered a few expletives during Saturday's game with Los Angeles. He did it again Monday during the game with the Astros at Houston, but fortunately the microphone had gone dead.

"Klu (batting coach Ted Kluszewski) was standing next to me and was afraid to say anything and George Scherger stayed down at the other end of the dugout like I had the plague," Anderson said.

Maupin May Be Mayoral Candidate

Maupin said his candidacy depends on two factors: his opinion of county schools, and his standing with the teachers' retirement program he was successful.

He said the most important factor is his ability to obtain a leave of absence to serve four years as mayor without impairing his retirement standing.

Maupin also said it doesn't bother him that previous black candidates for mayor have fared poorly.

The preplant herbicide that won't hold back your beans.

A cold, wet spell soon after soybeans come up is enough stress for your crop to contend with. The last thing it needs is added pressure from a herbicide. Tolban has excellent crop tolerance, even when it's cold and wet. So your beans take the cold, wet weather better. Tolban gives you consistent control of most annual grasses. And some broadleaf weeds. See us about Tolban. Find out for yourself how it can help your beans start strong, and finish clean.

Unoccupied Louisville School Bus Bombed Early This Morning

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A bomb placed in a Louisville-Jefferson County school bus exploded early today, causing extensive damage and scattering debris as far as 70 feet, police said.

The bus was parked in front of the home of the driver. No one was injured in the explosion, according to police. The explosion occurred shortly before 1 a. m. EDT. The bus was to have been used later today to transport pupils to school.

Carl Yates, public information officer for the Louisville Police, said police were trying to determine the type of bomb used from fragments found in the wreckage.

Gene McFadden, assistant superintendent for transportation of the merged city-county school system, said the bus was totally destroyed. He said the engine was completely blown apart, windows were either shattered or cracked and a large part of the bus was burned.

The bus had been used for what McFadden called a "double deseg run," meaning it normally made two trips each morning and afternoon transporting pupils from the inner city to suburban schools. Court-ordered school desegregation has been in effect here since last fall. About 22,000 of the system's 130,000 pupils are bused for racial integration.

McFadden said a spare bus was used to transport those students who would have ridden it today, and there were no delays in getting the pupils to school.

Today's bombing was not the first vandalism involving school buses since the desegregation plan took effect. Earlier in the school year, some buses were burned and rocks were thrown through the windows of others.

Yates said the bomb had been placed under the floorboard of the 66-passenger vehicle, directly behind the engine.

Shortly after the explosion, police and firemen arrived on the scene at 16th and Dumesnil streets. The fire on the bus was quickly brought under control.

McFadden refused to speculate on when the bomb might have been placed on the bus.

He said the driver, whose name was not released, parked the bus in front of his home late Wednesday afternoon after making his two trips returning pupils to the inner city. The bus remained parked on the street all night, McFadden said.

Travel Agency Opening Office In Murray Today

A full service travel agency office opened today in the White House office building at 711 Main Street in Murray. Marjorie M. Major (Mrs. William S. Major), a native of Murray who has just completed more than ten years' experience with a travel agency in Pittsburgh, Pa., is serving as a travel consultant to Murray people and is representing the Far Lands Travel Agency, of Mayfield, at that location.

Assisting Mrs. Major as reservationist in the office will be Sharon Carlisle, a graduate of the travel agency school of Atlantic College of Kansas City, who has been working for nearly two years as air reservationist in the office of Far Lands Travel Agency at Mayfield, which has been in business at Mayfield for more than ten years.

The Murray office will specialize in tours, cruises, air trips, rental cars, and hotel and motel reservations, plus other usual travel agency services, such as travel and flight insurance, Eurail passes and BritRail for European travel. The White House offices are already equipped with a wealth of attractive free travel brochures, and Mrs. Major will be offering package deals for domestic and international travel offered by American Express, Maupintour, Cartan, Percival, Olson, Travelworld, Travco, Gateway-Globus, and all the other leading travel wholesalers.

Mrs. Major says an exciting new development is the approval by the CAB of "OTC" charters, whereby individuals can, subject to certain restrictions such as 60-day advance payment, obtain air travel for as little as one-half or even one-third the usual economy air fare. "It takes an experienced travel agent to be able to point out such opportunities," she says.

Bible School Will Start On Monday

Homecoming To Be At Unity Church

The Unity Cumberland Presbyterian Church, located just off Highway 80, will have its annual homecoming on Sunday, June 6.

Bro. L. E. Moore, pastor, will speak at eleven a. m. with Sunday School at ten a. m. A basket dinner will be served at noon with singing in the afternoon featuring some special groups.

James F. Wilson Now A Lawyer At Oak Ridge, Tenn.

James F. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson of Murray, recently passed the Tennessee Bar Examination and is presently working with Attorney J. H. McCart in Wartburg, Tenn., who will be retiring soon.

Wilson, a resident of 100 Upsal Road, Oak Ridge, Tenn., said he later hopes to open another office in Oak Ridge.

The new lawyer received his bachelor's degree in physics at Murray State University and went to Oak Ridge in 1966 as a research assistant in radiation at the National Laboratory. He received a master's in health physics from the University of Tennessee in 1971, and has completed all the requirements for a doctorate in physics except for the dissertation.

Wilson said he decided to go to law school because "I saw physics as a dead end for me, and I can still use my science background, working in environmental law and land use law."

The former Murray man graduated from the University of Tennessee Law School in December. During law school, he was on the dean's list, a member of the Student Bar Association, and active in numerous other activities. He has clerked in three law firms at Oak Ridge. Two days a week Wilson travels to UT to teach a course in business law. He is also director of Elographics, Inc.

Wilson is married and has two children, Melissa Leigh and James Ryan.

Reagan Says He Might Send Troops To Rhodesia If Asked

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Ronald Reagan says if he is elected president he might send American troops to white-ruled Rhodesia if the government there asked for help to preserve peace.

Reagan also said that as chief executive he would propose legislation to prevent forced busing of students.

The former California governor, challenging President Ford for the Republican presidential nomination, responded to questions about Rhodesia at an appearance Wednesday before the Sacramento Press Club.

Later, at a fund-raising party in the San Francisco suburb of Cupertino, Reagan told supporters, "It isn't true. I'm not going to declare war on Rhodesia. I made the mistake of speaking to the press club over in Sacramento. You have to be careful about what you say."

Reagan has spent the last several days campaigning in his home state, which offers 167 nominating delegates in next Tuesday's winner-take-all GOP primary election.

Ford, meantime, was in Washington where he said he expects to win the Republican nomination on the first ballot. He forecast victories in the Ohio and New Jersey primaries. He did not comment on his loss of the Montana and South Dakota primaries to Reagan on Tuesday.

The President now has 805 of the 1,130 delegates needed for the nomination. Reagan has won 654.

Former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, the front-runner in the race for the Democratic nomination, left California Wednesday for Ohio after two days of campaigning. His departure was only a couple of hours before California's governor, Edmund G. Brown Jr., returned to his home state after a campaign swing through New Jersey.

Carter leads in delegates with 898 of the needed 1,505. Brown, whose campaign started late, has only 22 1/2 delegates, but he claimed the biggest share of delegates elected Tuesday in Rhode Island.

Idaho Sen. Frank Church, another of the Democratic candidates, fell ill in Los Angeles with strep throat and a fever and canceled or delayed appearances in Northern California.

Arizona Rep. Morris Udall, who trails

Carter in delegates with 305 1/2, campaigned in Ohio.

Reagan, in Sacramento, said he didn't think an actual commitment of American troops to Rhodesia would be necessary to preserve the peace during a transition of power to the black majority.

"They are fighting these guerrillas from across the border and doing very well. Whether it would be enough to have simply a show of strength, or whether you have to go in with occupation forces or not, I don't know," Reagan said.

Reagan said he would be willing to send troops "if the government there said that a token show ... is necessary."

Reagan's campaign staff chief, Mike Deaver, told reporters later that Reagan was raising the Rhodesian issue again because he wanted to avoid "the same misinterpretation" of his views that occurred concerning Panama.

Deaver said that when Reagan said he would defend Panama like any other "sovereign" territory of the United States, this was incorrectly interpreted to mean "he wants to go to war."

Ford Expected To Propose Legislation Against Busing

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford may ask Congress to create a national council that would negotiate local school desegregation plans in an effort to avoid court-ordered busing.

The proposed legislation also would place new restrictions on federal judges and could rule out city-wide integration plans in some cases.

Ford expects to decide "as soon as possible" on details of the legislative proposal he has promised to send Congress, White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Wednesday.

The President, his key aides and three Cabinet members discussed the legislative plan in a 90-minute session Wednesday. "There were no decisions made at the meeting," Nessen said.

Nessen said Ford plans to talk with civil rights and congressional leaders before reaching a final decision.

The Wednesday meeting focused on draft legislation prepared by Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi and the Justice Department and other proposals offered by David Mathews, secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Labor Secretary W.J. Usery also attended the session.

The legislation would establish a national council to mediate desegregation disputes in local communities, a Justice Department official said. The make-up of such a council was not learned but at least some members would be appointed by the president.

The proposal is designed to help community leaders reach voluntary desegregation plans before a federal court imposes a mandatory plan.

Without disclosing details, Nessen said Mathews outlined for Ford several approaches to help local school districts "avoid reaching the point at which the court steps in and orders massive busing."

The other major feature of the proposed legislation is the new restriction on federal judges.

The plan would require the courts to determine how much segregation was caused by official government acts, such as maintaining separate schools for black students or drawing district boundaries in a way that guarantees segregated schools.
